Forbes to launch www.forbesautos.com in May 9th March 2005

US business publisher Forbes plans to launch ForbesAutos.com (www.forbesautos.com), a new site geared to the luxury automotive market. ForbesAutos.com will offer luxury automotive buyers 'unsurpassed information and site functionality to enhance and improve the automotive decision-making and purchase process'. Mary S. Butler was appointed editor of the new site, which the company plans to launch in May 2005.
